The Sea Within by Julia Ciccarone

In this seminar Jacinta Frawley will focus on the presence of dreams within therapeutic relationships.

Participants will be invited to:

1. Reflect on your own dream practices within the context of therapy
2. Consider some of the many functions that the presence or absence of dreams may have in a therapeutic process

3. Explore the meaning of dreams as a product of the body
4. Wonder about dreams as a mutual manifestation, an “en-mindment”, of the transference/counter-transference
5. Review an extended dream sequence.

The seminar will be practical and as ‘hand on’ as possible in a virtual space. Active participation is encouraged.

Please have pen, colouring pencils or crayons, and paper at hand.

We do hope you will join us to tussle with the magic of the dream.
