

Australian and New Zealand Society of Jungian Analysts

Invitation to Mental Health Professionals

Professional Development Reading Groups

Encounters with Jungian and post-Jungian Theory and Clinical Practice

Kitaj (1979)

*“My life is a story of the self-realisation of the unconscious. Everything in the unconscious seeks outward manifestation, and the personality too desires to evolve out of its unconscious conditions and to experience itself as a whole.”
(Jung 1963, p. 17)*

In 2019 ANZSJA’s Professional Development Programme is offering reading groups for mental health professionals interested in reading and thinking about Jungian and post-Jungian approaches to psychotherapy and analysis in the context of their own developing clinical practice. Different Jungian analysts will facilitate reading groups in their consulting rooms beginning in February 2019. Some analysts will offer Skype / Zoom / FaceTime participation. The groups will begin with some background readings and selected readings from Jung’s Collected Works. These are a springboard from which facilitators and their groups will determine further readings based on their own interests. Meetings may be weekly, fortnightly or monthly, determined by the analyst.

Australian and New Zealand Society of Jungian Analysts Professional Development Reading Groups

For further details please contact individual analysts on the list below. Acceptance of a place in each group is at each facilitating analyst's discretion. Fees are to be negotiated separately with each analyst facilitating the group. Each facilitating analyst will keep a record of attendance and professional development certificates will be issued by ANZSJA annually.
