

The Art of Lies and Obfuscation

by Edward Primrose
starring Talia Rita Graziano

Buckle in while Bio, our intergalactic flight attendant, leads you on a voyage to the idyllic planet of Tri-Flora where, an advanced civilisation of music, dancing and free love awaits. Of course... there may be a few interruptions along the way. Why is Bio going to such extremes?

This one-woman show is a 'tour de force' for actor/singer Talia Rita Graziano who performs in multiple roles, live and on screen, while navigating the complexities of a personality in crisis. All this against the backdrop of a new orchestral/electronic music score by renowned composer and director, Edward Primrose.

There are only 7 shows of this brilliant new work of absurdist science fiction.
